Announcements

The community of Saint Joseph joins the Universal Church in prayer to ask for the eternal rest of the soul of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, who was called into the presence of God on December 31st. Pope Francis: from the homily at the funeral mass: "It is the faithful people of God who, gathered together, accompanies and entrusts life to whoever was their pastor. Like the women of the tomb, we are here with the perfume of gratitude and the ointment of hope to show you, once again, that love that is not lost; We want to do it with the same anointing, wisdom, delicacy, and delivery that he knew how to spread throughout the years "".

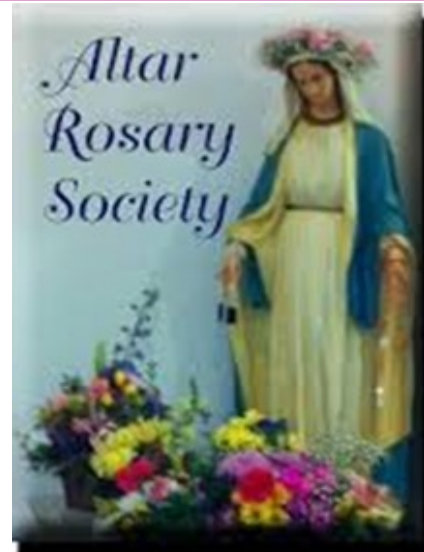

"We want to say together:" Father into your hands we commend the Spirit of him. Benedict, faithful friend of the Spouse, may your joy be perfect when you hear his voice definitively and forever.

ALTAR AND ROSARY SOCIETY

The Altar and Rosary Society was reestablished again in the parish of Saint Joseph, on October 13th, 2022. The members of the Altar and Rosary Society are faithful from the community who wish to offer their work to God for the care of their temple and everything related to the liturgy, for the glory of God and service to the community. They agree to pray the holy rosary at least once a week, to maintain the cleanliness and decorum of the temple and everything related to the altar service (tablecloths, chalices, articles for worship, etc.). If you would be interested in volunteering some time for the cleaning and upkeep of the Church as a member of the Altar and Rosary Society we ask that you contact the parish office.

We invite all couples who wish to get married to attend the pre-marriage classes that begin next Sunday, January 15, 2023 from 9:00 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. in the parish office classrooms. For more information you can call the office. Classes are in Spanish.
